(“PPLP”) and its affiliates that are debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) each commenced with the Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered for procedural purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b).

6. The Ad Hoc Committee formed prior to the Debtors’ bankruptcy filings to facilitate the negotiation of a settlement structure for a comprehensive resolution of litigation concerning the Debtors’ opioid businesses. Prior to the Debtors’ bankruptcy filings, the Ad Hoc Committee and the Debtors and their shareholders agreed to (the “Settlement Structure”), which was reduced to writing in a Term Sheet filed on October 8, 2019 (the “Term Sheet”), and entered into a reimbursement agreement (the “Prepetition Reimbursement Agreement”).

7. On October 29, 2019, the Debtors’ filed the Motion to Assume the Prepetition Reimbursement Agreement with the Ad Hoc Committee, and to Pay the Fees and Expenses of the Ad Hoc Committee’s Professionals (the “Fee Assumption Motion”) [Docket No. 394].

Services Rendered by Brown Rudnick During the Application Period

10. Brown Rudnick has recorded time charges in these chapter 11 cases separately for each matter as to which it has given attention during the Application Period. For purposes of this Application, the services rendered have been segregated into eleven (11) categories, as follows:⁴

- a. Assets Analysis and Recovery
- b. Assumption and Rejection of Leases

³ The $477,421.75 total balance remaining to be paid for all the Monthly Statements through December 31, 2019 represents (a) the 20% percent holdbacks for the period September 16, 2019 through December 31, 2019; and (b) the total fees and expenses for the period January 1, 2020 through January 31, 2020.

⁴ In accordance with the Fee Assumption Order, Brown Rudnick has separately recorded work performed related to allocation of value among the Debtors' creditors, and, to the best of its knowledge, Brown Rudnick has not included time relating to such allocation in this Application.

- c. Business Operations
- d. Case Administration
- e. Claims Analysis
- f. Employment and Fee Applications
- g. Emergency Financing
- h. Litigation – Contested Matters, Adversary Proceedings and Automatic Stay
- i. Meetings and Communications with Ad Hoc Committee & Creditors
- j. Non-Working Travel
- k. Plan and Disclosure Statement

11. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a narrative description of each project category and a schedule setting forth a description of the project category utilized in these chapter 11 cases, which the total number of hours expended by the attorneys and paraprofessionals of Brown Rudnick by project category and aggregate fees associated with each category referenced above in paragraph 11.

Disbursements

12. Brown Rudnick has disbursed $11,073.89 as expenses incurred and recorded in providing professional services during the Application Period. None of these expensed exceeds the maximum rate set by the Guidelines. These charges are intended to cover Brown Rudnick's direct costs, which costs are not incorporated into Brown Rudnick's hourly fees. Only clients who actually use services of the types for which reimbursement is sought are separately charged for such service.

13. Brown Rudnick respectfully submits that the actual expenses incurred in providing professional services for which reimbursement is sought in this Application were reasonable and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Ad Hoc Committee in accordance with the Fee Assumption Order.

The Requested Compensation Should be Allowed

14. The Fee Assumption Order provides that Brown Rudnick's reasonable and documented fees and expenses shall be subject mutatis mutandis, to the procedures with respect to the authorization of payment of the fees and expenses of the professionals of the Debtors and the UCC as set forth in the Interim Compensation Order. Therefore, while this Application is not strictly subject to sections 331 and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, we are guided by such provisions in making this Application. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of Section 330 to govern a court's award of such compensation. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 330, 331.

15. Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factor, including:

- a. the time spent on such services,
- b. the fees charged for such services,
- c. whether the services were necessary to the administration of or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of a case under this title;
- d. whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed, and

- e. whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U. S. C. § 330(a)(3).

16. As set forth in greater detail below, Brown Rudnick respectfully submits that it has satisfied the requirements of the Fee Assumption Order and section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code as they may be applied to the Application through the Fee Assumption Order. The services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were necessary for the adequate representation of the Ad Hoc Committee, and in all respects consistent with the Reimbursement Agreement, the Fee Assumption Motion and in furtherance of the Ad Hoc Committee's duties under the Settlement Structure and Term Sheet. Brown Rudnick's request for compensation is reflective of a reasonable and appropriate amount of time expended in performing such services commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problem, issue, or task involved. As described in the Fee Assumption Motion and in supportive filings made therewith, Brown Rudnick was and continues to be committed to performing these services without unnecessary duplication of effort by: (1) professionals employed by Brown Rudnick; or (2) other professionals employed by the Ad Hoc Committee. The compensation sought by Brown Rudnick is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, Brown Rudnick's monthly fees are comparable with other similarly qualified legal advisors appearing in this and other chapter 11 cases. For all of the foregoing reasons, Brown Rudnick respectfully requests that the Court grant this Application.

Supplemental Disclosures Required by UST Guidelines

17. Pursuant to Section C.3 of the UST Guidelines, Brown Rudnick's hourly rates for bankruptcy services are comparable to the hourly rates charged in complex chapter 11 cases by comparably skilled bankruptcy attorneys. In addition, Brown Rudnick's hourly rates for bankruptcy services are comparable to the rates charged by the firm, and by comparably skilled practitioners in other firms, for complex corporate and litigation matters, whether in court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required. By way of example, Brown Rudnick's blended hourly rates for attorneys and paraprofessionals for all sections of the firm, excluding the Restructuring section, for the prior calendar year were set forth on the attached Exhibit E.

18. The following statements address the information required pursuant to Section C.5 of the UST Guidelines:

- a. During the Application Period, Brown Rudnick did not agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, its standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for service pertaining to this engagement, except as described herein.
- b. The fees sought in this Application are not more than 10% higher as compared to the budget provided to the Debtors. The budget with respect to the Application Period is discussed more fully below.
- c. None of the professionals included in this Fee Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographical location of the bankruptcy case.
- d. This Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing or revising invoices.
- e. This Application does not include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information.

19. Additionally, on March 13, 2020 Brown Rudnick filed its Fourth Monthly Fee Statement, wherein it disclosed that it had increased its hourly rates charged by its professionals pursuant to its ordinary annual review process.

20. With respect to the use of a budget and staffing plan as suggested in Section C.6 of the UST Guidelines, Brown Rudnick has, contemporaneous herewith, provided a general budget to the Debtors and identified the core team of professionals that worked on various projects with the assistance of other professionals as the case needs dictated. A copy of the budget and staffing plan that provided to the Debtors is attached hereto as Exhibit F. Prior to the circulation of this general budget, Brown Rudnick provided a non-itemized budget to the Debtors regarding the period covered by this Application. Brown Rudnick confirms that the fees sought in this Application are not more than 10% higher as compared to the non-itemized budget. A prospective estimate budget for the next interim fee period shall be provided to the Debtors.

21. Brown Rudnick has not previously applied for payment of fees or reimbursement of any disbursement during these cases, except for the monthly fee statements it has submitted and filed with the Court. Brown Rudnick does not hold a retainer in respect of its services as co-counsel to the Ad Hoc Committee.

22. In accordance with Section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2016(a), no agreement or understanding exists between Brown Rudnick and any other persons for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in or in connection with these cases.

23. No agreement or understanding prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been or will be made by Brown Rudnick.

24. The undersigned has reviewed the requirements of Local Rule 2016-2 and certified that this Application complies with that Local Rule.

25. Notice of this Application has been provided in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order. Brown Rudnick submits that no other or further notice need be provided.

26. Brown Rudnick reserves all rights and claims. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Brown Rudnick reserves its rights to submit future monthly fee applications, interim fee applications, and final fee applications, including, without limitation, fee applications seeking final allowance of all amounts sought to be paid or reimbursed herein and in respect of any amounts held back pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order or otherwise.

WHERFORE, Brown Rudnick respectfully requests (i) interim allowance of compensation for professional services rendered as counsel for the Ad Hoc Committee in the amount of $1,135,221.75 in fees for the period of September 16, 2019 through January 31, 2020, (ii) and interim allowance of reimbursement of actual and necessary disbursements incurred and recorded by Brown Rudnick in the amount of $11,073.89.

Summary of Hours Billed by Professional by Project Category and Narrative Description of Each Project Category

Overview

During the period from September 16, 2019 through January 31, 2020 (the “Application Period”), as more fully set forth below, Brown Rudnick provided legal advice, representation and services to the Ad Hoc Committee within the mandate of the Ad Hoc Committee as defined in the Reimbursement Agreement (the “Scope”). The Ad Hoc Committee’s Scope is “to negotiate and support the terms and definitive documents associated with the Settlement and to take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to facilitate the Settlement, and not to take positions adverse to the Settlement, engage in litigation activities, review or investigate other matters, or engage in matters in which the respective members of the Ad Hoc Committee may be in conflict.” Additionally, Brown Rudnick was focused on coordinating the advice and efforts of the Ad Hoc Committee’s non-state members. As further described in the Application, Brown Rudnick has not included, to the best of its knowledge, any time relating to the allocation of value among the Debtors’ creditors.

A. Asset Analysis and Recovery

During the Application Period, Brown Rudnick engaged with the Debtors’ and shareholders’ counsel on a number of initial due diligence issues. Among other things, Brown Rudnick assisted in negotiating a confidentiality agreement to govern the bankruptcy cases and began reviewing and analyzing diligence, data, and analysis received from the shareholder parties and from the Ad Hoc Committee’s financial professionals. Because of the unique nature of these cases and challenges surrounding disclosure of information to governmental entities, it took the parties a number of weeks to reach mutually agreeable terms for confidentiality, and an agreed to protective order, which was entered at Docket No.784. Brown Rudnick also explored the potential coordination of diligence efforts with Canadian plaintiffs. Brown Rudnick analyzed the business plans and other financial information shared by the shareholder parties regarding their Independent Associated Companies, which is a fundamental part of the Settlement Framework and Term Sheet and expended significant time reviewing tax issues and preparing advice memoranda on how to maximize tax attributes to the Debtors' estates in respect of the shareholder parties' Independent Associated Companies. Brown Rudnick strategized with its co-counsel regarding progressing the collective analysis and diligence of the Independent Associated Companies.
